

Constitution of the
of
Case Western Reserve University

Originally Ratified:

Revised:

Article I. Name and Purpose

§1 - Name

The name of this organization will be:
also referred to as:

§2 - Purpose

Article II. Membership Requirements

Candidacy for membership will be open to all students, faculty and staff of Case Western Reserve University, provided the students are in good academic standing with the university.

There will be a $ annual membership fee, which will be collected at the beginning of each academic year.

No discrimination will be made on the basis of color, course of study, creed, culture, disabilities, fraternal membership, gender, marital status, national origin, political affiliation, race, religious beliefs, or sexual orientation.

Article III. Officers and Duties

§1 – Elected Officers

The elected officers will be:

- a) President
- b) Vice President
- c) Treasurer
- d) Corresponding Secretary
- e) Website Master
- f) Newsletter editor

§2 – Temporary Officers

Temporary positions may be created by a majority vote of the executive board. The board will solicit letters of intent for any open temporary positions, and the officer will be chosen by a majority vote of the executive board.

§3 – Committees

Committees and committee chairs may be created by the president as described in Article III, §3 of the bylaws.

§4 – Advisor

The advisor of CSSA will be a faculty member of Case Western Reserve University.

§5 - Duties

The duties of all officers and of the advisor shall be as stated in Article I of the Bylaws.

§6 - Selection of Officers

Officers shall be selected in the manner described in Article II of the Bylaws.

Article IV. Amendments

This Constitution may be amended in the manner described in Article IV §2 of the Bylaws providing such amendments do not violate Article IV §3 of the Bylaws.

Article V. Bylaws

A set of bylaws will supplement this constitution, describing officer and advisor duties, selection procedures, and meeting procedures.